

Lamoni Rose Hill Cemetery - Burials Sorted by Name

The shed divides Rose Hill between west and east sides. The old west side has 9 sections since we split 1, 3, and 5 into N and S parts. The 11 sections are known as Blocks on the east side, but only B3, B7, B8, B9, and B10 are for burials. The X and Y coordinate for each lot helps you find it. Start at the NW corner of the section. X is the headstone row count going east and Y is the lot count going south. Y is only useful as a guide since lots vary in size and the number of graves. That is, Y counts lots, not the headstones in the headstone row. Burial spaces are numbered 1 to 4, from S to N, for most lots, but "of" is sometimes used for differences like 2of3 means the middle of a 3-space lot. Other symbols are added for multiple burials in one space, such as 3w for the west end of space 3 for an infant buried at the head of a parent.

This document lists all burials in alphabetic order sorted by last name then first name.
